Miss Wilson Entertainer.

Miss Letitia Morsley whose wedding will be an interesting social event for next week has lots of homes to stay at many delightful affairs for the past few weeks, quite a pretty one being the miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. Lola Wilson yesterday afternoon.

Tables were arranged for tea parties, and the games were most enjoyable. During the games Miss Elizabeth Tribble dressed as a fairy danced into the room and invited the guest into a darkened room with red lights among palms, ferns.

Then the shower of pretty gifts for the bridee was arranged.

Later a dainty sweet course was served by Miss Wilson assisted by Mrs. Roscoe Moses, Mrs. Keith Preysor, Mrs. Fred Tribble, Misses Jean Harris and Mrs. Wilson.

About thirty girls were present.

Mrs. S. H. Bryan has returned for Washington, D. C., to join her son, and they will return their future home there.

Miss Laura Horne has gone to Atlanta, Ga., to attend a house party.

Death of Robert.

The son of a prominent citizen has many stories to tell of the community which he loves.

The death of Robert, the son of the chairman of the festival, was with overwhelming grief. Robert's last words to his mother were to the chair and stood smiling the air over every one and left the church.

Robert is well known throughout the country as an author and a man with excellent reputation.

I don't know if I ever realized how much I had lost until I saw him again.

He was a man of great promise.
